Item 1. e.

BRIDGFORD FOODS CORPORATION

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED CONDENSED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS (Unaudited)

(in thousands, except share and per share amounts)

Note 1 - The Company and Summary of Significant Accounting Policies:

The unaudited consolidated condensed financial statements of Bridgford Foods Corporation (the "Company") for the twelve and thirty-six weeks ended July 7, 2006 and July 8, 2005 have been prepared in conformity with the accounting principles described in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended October 28, 2005 (the "Annual Report") and include all adjustments considered necessary by management for a fair statement of the interim periods. Such adjustments consist only of normal recurring items. This report should be read in conjunction with the Annual Report. Due to seasonality and other factors, interim results are not necessarily indicative of the results to be expected for the full year.

On February 22, 2006 the Company sold 5,028 shares of common stock of Sears Holdings Corporation received as the result of the bankruptcy of a significant customer. This transaction resulted in a pre-tax gain of $106 and a reduction in other comprehensive income of $67.

Note 2 - Inventories:

Inventories are comprised as follows at the respective periods:

July 7 2006	October 28 2005
$ 4,727	$ 6,433
1,357	2,293
11,435	12,598
$ 17,519	$ 21,324
	2006 $ 4,727 1,357 11,435

In November 2004, the FASB issued Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 151, "Inventory Costs". The Statement requires abnormal amounts of inventory costs related to amounts of idle freight, handling costs and spoilage be recognized as current period expenses. The standard is effective for fiscal years beginning after June 15, 2005 with early application permitted. The Company's policy has always been to handle inventory costs in a manner consistent with the provisions of this Statement, and, therefore, the adoption had no impact.

Note 3 - Basic and diluted earnings per share:

The Company had 250,000 employee stock options outstanding during the twelve and thirty-six week periods ended July 7, 2006 and July 8, 2005. The effect of the employee stock options outstanding for the twelve and thirty-six weeks ended July 7, 2006 and July 8, 2005 was not included in the calculation of diluted shares and diluted earnings per share as to do so would be anti-dilutive. Note 4 - Retirement and Other Benefit Plans:

The Company has noncontributory-trusteed defined benefit retirement plans for sales, administrative, supervisory and certain other employees. The benefits under these plans are primarily based on years of service and compensation levels. The Company's funding policy is to contribute annually the maximum amount deductible for federal income tax purposes, without regard to the plans' unfunded current liability. The measurement date for the plans is the Company's fiscal year end.

Net pension cost consisted of the following:

	36 weeks ended July 7 2006			veeks ended July 8 2005
Service cost	$	1,082	$	1,151
Interest cost		1,355		1,235
Expected return on plan assets		(1,064)		(963)
Amortization of unrecognized transition liability or (asset)		_		_
Amortization of net loss from earlier periods		191
Amortization of transition asset (15.2 years)				253
Amortization of unrecognized prior service cost		22		29
Curtailment Cost		8		_
Net pension cost	$	1,594	$	1,705

The Company funded its annual contribution of $1,800 to the plans during July of 2006.

In the third quarter of fiscal 2006, the Company froze the defined benefit pension plan accrued benefits for members employed by the Company within administration, sales or supervisory job classification or within a non- bargaining class (the Corporate Group). This action is defined as a curtailment under SFAS No. 88 "Employers' Accounting for Settlements and Curtailments of Defined Benefit Pension Plans and for Termination Benefits" and, therefore, the Company recognized a curtailment loss of approximately $8. As a result of this action, net pension costs will be reduced in future periods.

Note 5 - Stock-Based Compensation:

In December 2004, the FASB issued Statement of Financial Accounting Standards ("SFAS") No. 123R, "Share-Based Payment". SFAS No. 123R requires public companies to measure and recognize compensation expense for all share-based payments to employees, including grants of employee stock options, in the financial statements based on the fair value at the date of the grant. The Statement also clarifies and expands SFAS No. 123's guidance in several areas, including measuring fair value, classifying an award as equity or as a liability, and attributing compensation cost to reporting periods. SFAS No. 123R became effective for the Company's fiscal year ending November 3, 2006. The Company has not issued, awarded, granted or entered into any stock-based payment agreements since April 29, 1999. The modified prospective adoption of SFAS No. 123R did not have any impact on the Company's financial condition or results of operations for the first thirty-six weeks ended July 7, 2006.

Prior to adoption of SFAS No. 123R, the Company adopted SFAS No. 123 "Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation" which allowed the Company to apply the provisions of Accounting Principles Board ("APB") Opinion No. 25, "Accounting for Stock Issued to Employees," and related interpretations in accounting for stock-based compensation and, therefore, no compensation expense was recognized for its fixed stock option plans as options are generally granted at fair market value based upon the closing price on the date immediately preceding the grant date. On December 31, 2002 the FASB issued SFAS No. 148, "Accounting for Stock Based Compensation- Transition and Disclosure", which amended SFAS No. 123. SFAS No. 148 requires more prominent and frequent disclosures about the effects of stock-based compensation. Accordingly, if compensation expense for the Company's stock options had been recognized, based upon the fair value of awards granted, there would have been no impact on the Company's net income and earnings per share for the first thirty-six weeks ending July 8, 2005.

No options were granted during the first thirty-six weeks of the fiscal year ending November 3, 2006 and during the first thirty-six weeks of the fiscal year ended October 28, 2005.

Note 6 - Commitments:

The Company leases certain transportation and computer equipment under operating leases. The terms of the transportation leases provide for annual renewal options and contingent rental payments based upon mileage and adjustments of rental payments based on the Consumer Price Index. No material changes have been made to these contracts during the first thirty-six weeks of fiscal 2006.

Note 7 - Segment Information:

The Company has two reportable operating segments, Frozen Food Products (the processing and distribution of frozen products) and Refrigerated and Snack Food Products (the processing and distribution of refrigerated meat and other convenience foods).

The Company evaluates each segment's performance based on revenues and operating income. Selling, general and administrative expenses include corporate accounting, information systems, human resource management and marketing, which are managed at the corporate level. These activities are allocated to each operating segment based on revenues and/or actual usage.

The following segment information is presented for the twelve and thirty-six week periods ended July 7, 2006 and July 8, 2005.

Note 8 - Subsequent Events:

On July 10, 2006, the Company froze defined pension benefits for employees classified in the "Dallas Union Group" effective January 2, 2007. This action had no impact on earnings in the first thirty-six weeks of fiscal year 2006.

Effective August 1, 2006, the Company's Board of Directors approved the recommendations of the Benefits Committee and adopted a new 401(k) profit sharing plan.

Item 2.

SPECIAL NOTE REGARDING FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

Certain statements in this Form 10-Q under Item 2 "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations" and elsewhere constitute "forward-looking statements" within the meaning of the Securities Act of 1933 and the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the "Exchange Act"). In addition, the Company may from time to time make oral forward-looking statements. Words such as "may", "will", "should", "could", "expect", "plan", "anticipate", "believe", "estimate", "predict", "potential" or "contribute" or similar words are intended to identify forward-looking statements, although not all forward-looking statements contain these words. Such forward-looking statements involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties, and other factors which may cause the actual results, performance, or achievements of the Company to be materially different from any future results, performance or achievements expressed or implied by such forward-looking statements. Such factors include, among others, the following: general economic and business conditions; the impact of competitive products and pricing; success of operating initiatives; development and operating costs; advertising and promotional efforts; adverse publicity; acceptance of new product offerings; consumer trial and frequency; changes in business strategy or development plans; availability, terms and deployment of capital; availability of qualified personnel; commodity, labor, and employee benefit costs; changes in, or failure to comply with, government regulations; weather conditions; construction schedules; and other factors referenced in this Form 10-Q and in Bridgford Foods' Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended October 28, 2005. Because of these and other factors that may affect the Company's operating results, past financial performance should not be considered an indicator of future performance, and investors should not use historical trends to anticipate results or trends in future periods. The Company expressly disclaims any intent or obligation to publicly release the results of any revisions to these forward-looking statements that may be made to reflect events or circumstances after the date hereof, or to reflect the occurrence of unanticipated events.

Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations

Critical Accounting Policies, Management Estimates and Risk Factors

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make certain estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported revenues and expenses during the respective reporting periods. Actual results could differ from those estimates. Amounts estimated related to liabilities for pension costs, self-insured workers' compensation and employee healthcare are especially subject to inherent uncertainties and these estimated liabilities may ultimately settle at amounts not originally estimated. An actuary updates the pension and post-retirement healthcare data on a quarterly basis. Management believes its current estimates are reasonable and based on the best information available at the time.

The Company's credit risk is diversified across a broad range of customers and geographic regions. Losses due to credit risk have recently been immaterial although losses in fiscal year 2002 were significant. The Company recorded the final payment recovery related to its fiscal year 2002 loss in its first quarter of fiscal year 2006, receiving 2,939 shares of stock of Sears Holdings Corporation valued at $344,000. On February 22, 2006, during the second quarter of fiscal year 2006, the Company sold 5,028 shares of common stock of Sears Holdings Corporation received as the result of a bankruptcy distribution. This transaction resulted in a pre-tax gain of $106,000 and a reduction in other comprehensive income of $67,000. As a result of this transaction, the Company no longer holds shares in Sears Holdings Corporation. The provision for doubtful accounts receivable is based on historical trends and current collectibility risk. The Company has significant amounts receivable with a few large, well known customers which, although historically secure, could be subject to material risk should these customers' operations suddenly deteriorate. The Company monitors these customers closely to minimize the risk of loss. Wal-Mart® comprised 14.5% of revenues for the first thirty-six weeks of fiscal year 2006 and 18.8% of accounts receivable at the end of the third quarter of fiscal year 2006. Wal-Mart® comprised 14.3% of revenues for the first thirty-six weeks of fiscal year 2005.

Revenues are recognized upon passage of title to the customer upon product pick-up, shipment or delivery to customers as determined by applicable contracts. Products are delivered to customers through the Company's own fleet or through a Company-owned direct store delivery system.

The Company records the cash surrender or contract value for life insurance policies as an adjustment of premiums paid in determining the expense or income to be recognized under the contract for the period.

The Company's operating results are heavily dependent upon the prices paid for raw materials. Other significant factors that influence operating results include transportation and energy costs. The marketing of the Company's value-added products does not lend itself to instantaneous changes in selling prices. Changes in selling prices are relatively infrequent and do not compare with the volatility of commodity markets, transportation costs and energy prices.

The above listing is not intended to be a comprehensive list of all the Company's accounting policies. In many cases, the accounting treatment of a particular transaction is specifically dictated by accounting principles generally accepted in the United States, with no need for management's judgment in their application. There are also areas in which management's judgment in selecting any available alternative would not produce a materially different result.

Results of Operations for the Twelve Weeks ended July 7, 2006 and Twelve Weeks ended July 8, 2005.

Net Sales

Net sales increased by $513,000 (1.9%) to $28,169,000 in the third twelve weeks of the 2006 fiscal year compared to the same twelve-week period last year. The primary reason for the increase was higher unit selling prices between comparative periods. Average unit selling prices were approximately 5.5% higher than the comparative period in the prior fiscal year. Lower unit volume of approximately 3.2% offset the higher unit prices obtained. Product return levels also decreased against the comparative prior period.

Compared to the prior twelve-week period ended April 14, 2006 (not shown), sales decreased $136,000 (0.5%). The decrease relates to seasonally lower unit sales volume in the twelve-week period ended July 7, 2006. Average unit selling prices increased slightly compared to the prior twelve-week period.

Cost of Products Sold

Cost of products sold decreased by $217,000 (1.3%) to $17,024,000 in the third twelve weeks of the 2006 fiscal year compared to the same twelve-week period in fiscal 2005. The decrease in cost of products sold and increase in gross margin on a comparative basis was due primarily to lower meat commodity costs in the period and higher unit selling prices. Although flour commodity costs increased, this trend had minimal impact on the gross margin.

Compared to the prior twelve-week period ended April 14, 2006 (not shown), the cost of products sold decreased $486,000 (2.8%). This decrease is primarily a result of seasonally lower unit sales volume and improved facility utilization.

Selling, General and Administrative Expenses

Selling, general and administrative expenses increased by $698,000 (7.5%) to $10,019,000 in the third twelve weeks of fiscal year 2006 compared to the same twelve-week period in the prior fiscal year. The change in this category for the twelve-week period ended July 7, 2006 did not correspond to the sales increase. The comparative value change in cash surrender value of life insurance policies decreased by $297,000 compared to the same twelve-week period in the prior fiscal year. Costs related to fuel and health benefits also rose at a higher rate as a percentage of sales than the prior fiscal year. Reductions in advertising expense and higher investment income helped offset these increases.

Compared to the prior twelve-week period ended April 14, 2006 (not shown), selling, general and administrative expenses increased by $178,000 (1.8%). The increase was primarily caused by a growth in fuel, health care, bad debt and outside storage expenses compared to the prior 12-week period. The comparative value change in cash surrender value of life insurance policies decreased by $199,000 compared to the prior period which also increased this category compared to the prior period.

Depreciation Expense

Depreciation expense decreased by $136,000 (13.2%) to $892,000 in the third twelve weeks of the 2006 fiscal year compared to the same twelve-week period in fiscal year 2005. The decrease in depreciation expense was due to lower capital expenditures in recent periods and significant assets becoming fully depreciated in the 2006 fiscal year.

Compared to the prior twelve-week period ended April 14, 2006 (not shown), depreciation remained constant at $892,000 during the third twelve weeks of fiscal 2006.

Income Taxes

The Company recorded an income tax provision based on an estimated annual effective tax rate of 54.04% in the third twelve weeks of fiscal 2006 as compared to -268.2% in the prior fiscal year and 57.1% for the prior twelve-week period. The income tax provision recorded is different from what would result by applying this rate, due to certain adjustments that affected the provision for income taxes. The discrete item included a one-time benefit for R&D tax credits recorded in the period. The change in the effective income tax rate also relates to significant non-taxable gains on life insurance policies and revisions to the Company's projected tax rates related to updated estimates.

Net Income (Loss)

Net income in the twelve weeks ended July 7, 2006 was affected by non-taxable loss on life insurance policies in the amount of $53,000. Gains and losses on life insurance policies are dependent upon the performance of the underlying equities and future results may produce losses of equal magnitude. Taxable investment income also increased on a comparative basis during the third twelve weeks of fiscal 2006 in the amount of $125,000 due to higher cash balances and an increase in short-term interest rates. After considering the effect of these transactions, the Company's results were as follows:

	12 Weeks Ended July 7, 2006		Weeks Ended uly 8, 2005
Net income (loss) before taxes, life insurance gain (loss) and investment income	$ 89,000	$	(251,000)
Life insurance gain (loss) and investment income	145,000		317,000

Income tax provision (benefit)	10,000		(177,000)
Net income	$ 224,000	$	243,000

The Company presents net income or loss before taxes, life insurance gain or loss and investment income because the Company believes it is an important measure for investors to use in understanding the Company's underlying operations.

Results of Operations for the Thirty-Six Weeks ended July 7, 2006 and Thirty-Six Weeks ended July 8, 2005.

Net Sales

Net sales increased by $2,088,000 (2.3%) to $91,049,000 in the first thirty-six weeks of the 2006 fiscal year compared to the same thirty-six-week period last year. The primary reason for the increase was higher unit selling prices between comparative periods. Average unit selling prices were approximately 5.5% higher than the comparative period in the prior fiscal year. Lower unit volume partially offset the higher unit prices obtained.

Cost of Products Sold

Cost of products sold increased by $415,000 (0.7%) to $58,087,000 in the first thirty-six weeks of the 2006 fiscal year compared to the same thirty-six-week period in fiscal 2005. The increase in cost of products sold is primarily related to lower facility utilization related to lower unit volumes and significant maintenance projects completed on the Company's facilities in the first thirty-six weeks of the 2006 fiscal year. Also contributing to the increase were higher facility repairs, energy and delivery costs. Significant declines in meat commodity costs helped offset these higher costs. The gross margin increased slightly on a comparative basis due primarily to higher selling prices and lower commodity prices. Flour commodity costs increased during the first thirty-six weeks of the 2006 fiscal year when evaluated against the comparison period while pork and beef commodities declined significantly.

Selling, General and Administrative Expenses

Selling, general and administrative expenses increased by $727,000 (2.5%) to $30,230,000 in the first thirty-six weeks of fiscal year 2006 compared to the same thirty-six-week period in the prior fiscal year. The rate of increase in this category generally corresponds to the sales increase. Costs related to fuel and vehicle repairs increased when compared to the fiscal year 2005 thirty-six week period, while favorable trends in bad debt expenses and higher investment income offset these increases.

Depreciation Expense

Depreciation expense decreased by $409,000 (13.3%) to $2,676,000 in the first thirty-six weeks of the 2006 fiscal year compared to the same thirty-six-week period in fiscal year 2005. The decrease in depreciation expense was due to lower capital expenditures in recent years and significant assets becoming fully depreciated in the 2006 fiscal year.

Income Taxes

The Company recorded an income tax provision in the first thirty-six weeks of fiscal 2006, based on an estimated annual effective tax rate of 54.04% as compared to 53.6% in the prior fiscal year. The income tax provision recorded for the first thirty-six weeks of fiscal 2006 is different from what would result by applying this rate, due to certain adjustments that affect income taxes. These discrete items include a one-time benefit for R&D credits recorded in the period, and an income tax adjustment resulting from a state tax authority audit. The change in the effective income tax rate also relates to significant non-taxable gains on life insurance policies and revisions to the Company's projected tax rates related to updated estimates between comparison periods.

Net Income (Loss)

Net income in the thirty-six weeks ended July 7, 2006 was significantly affected by gains related to the sale of equity securities in the amount of $106,000 and non-taxable gains on life insurance policies in the amount of $303,000. Gains and losses on life insurance policies are dependent upon the performance of the underlying equities and future results may produce losses of equal magnitude. Taxable investment income also increased on a comparative basis during the first thirty-six weeks of fiscal 2006 in the amount of $238,000 due to higher cash balances and an increase in short-term interest rates. After considering the effect of these transactions, the Company's results were as follows:

	36 Weeks Ended July 7, 2006		Weeks Ended July 8, 2005
Net loss before taxes, gain on sale of equity securities, life insurance gain and investment income	$	(636,000)	$ (1,824,000)

year 2006. The net favorable reduction recorded in the prior year period was $192,000. The Company presents net income or loss before taxes, gain or loss on sale of equity securities, life insurance gain or loss and investment income because the Company believes it is an important measure for investors to use in understanding the Company's underlying operations. The gain on sale is related to securities that the Company sold during the second twelve weeks of fiscal year 2006.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

Net cash from operating activities was $6,776,000 for the first thirty-six weeks of the 2006 fiscal year. Operating cash was generated principally by net income and reductions in inventory. The substantial reduction in inventory in the first thirty-six weeks of fiscal 2006 is consistent with normal seasonal trends and a planned seasonal reduction in field inventories. The Company utilized cash flow for additions to property, plant and equipment and share repurchases. The net effect of these events resulted in a cash and cash equivalents increase during the first thirty-six weeks of fiscal 2006 of $5,169,000 (49.9%) to $15,524,000. The additions to property, plant and equipment reflect the Company's continued investment in processing, transportation and information technology equipment.

No cash dividends were paid during the first thirty-six weeks of the 2006 fiscal year, as was the case during the first 36 weeks of the 2005 fiscal year, as the Board of Directors suspended the quarterly cash dividend at its May 2004 meeting in recognition of lower profitability levels in recent quarters.

The Company remained free of interest bearing debt during the first thirty-six weeks of fiscal year 2006. The Company's revolving line of credit with Bank of America expires April 30, 2008 and provides for borrowings up to $2,000,000. The Company has not borrowed under this line for more than nineteen consecutive years.

The impact of inflation on the Company's financial position and results of operations has not been significant. Management is of the opinion that the Company's financial position and its capital resources are sufficient to provide for its near term operating needs and capital expenditures.

Recently Issued Accounting Interpretations

In June 2006, the Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") issued Interpretation No. 48, "Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes, an interpretation of FASB Statement No. 109" ("FIN 48"). This Statement addresses uncertainty in tax positions recognized in a company's financial statements and stipulates a recognition threshold and measurement of a tax position taken or expected to be taken in a tax return. FIN 48 will apply to the Company's fiscal year beginning November 3, 2007, with earlier adoption permitted. The Company does not expect this interpretation will have a material impact on the Company's results of operations or financial position.

Off-Balance Sheet Arrangements

The Company is not engaged in any "off-balance sheet arrangements" within the meaning of Item 303(a)(4)(ii) of Regulation S-K.

Item 3.

Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures about Market Risk

The Company does not have significant foreign currency exposure at July 7, 2006. The Company's financial instruments generally consist of cash and cash equivalents and life insurance policies at July 7, 2006. The Company sold the shares of stock of Sears Holdings Corporation previously received as a result of the bankruptcy of a significant customer. Realized gains and losses upon the sale of this investment are recognized in the consolidated condensed statements of operations. These shares were sold on February 22, 2006 for $606,000. The Company recognized a gain on this sale in the amount of $106,000 in the consolidated condensed statements of operations in the second twelve-week period of fiscal year 2006 ended April 14, 2006. The carrying value of the Company's financial instruments approximated their fair market values based on current market prices and rates. It is not the Company's policy to enter into derivative financial instruments.

The Company purchases bulk flour under short-term fixed price contracts during the normal course of business. Under these arrangements, the Company is obligated to purchase specific quantities at fixed prices, within the specified contract period. These contracts provide for automatic price increases if agreed quantities are not purchased within the specified contract period. No significant contracts remained unfulfilled at July 7, 2006.

Item 4.

Controls and Procedures

Management of the Company, with the participation and under the supervision of the Company's Chairman and Chief Financial Officer, has evaluated the effectiveness of the Company's disclosure controls and procedures (as defined in Exchange Act Rules 13a-15(e) and 15d-15(e)) as of the end of the period covered by this quarterly report. Based on this evaluation, the Chairman and Chief Financial Officer have concluded that the Company's disclosure controls and procedures are effective as of the end of the period covered by this report to provide reasonable assurance that material information required to be disclosed by the Company in the reports that it files or submits under the Exchange Act is recorded, processed, summarized and reported within the time periods specified by the Securities and Exchange Commission's rules and forms. There has been no change in the Company's internal control over financial reporting (as defined in Exchange Act Rules 13a-15(f) and 15d-15(f)) during the period covered by this report that has materially affected, or is reasonably likely to materially affect, the Company's internal control over financial reporting.

The Company's management, including its Chairman and Chief Financial Officer, does not expect that the Company's disclosure controls and internal controls will prevent all error and all fraud. A control system, no matter how well conceived and operated, can provide only reasonable, not absolute, assurance that the objectives of the control system are met. Further, the design of a control system must reflect the fact that there are resource constraints, and the benefits of controls must be considered relative to their costs. Because of inherent limitations in all control systems, no evaluation of controls can provide absolute assurance that all control issues and instances of fraud, if any, within the Company have been detected. These inherent limitations include the realities that judgments in decision-making can be faulty, and that breakdowns can occur because of simple error or mistake. Additionally, controls can be circumvented by the individual acts of some persons, by collusion of two or more people, or by management override of the control.

The design of any system of controls is also based in part upon certain assumptions about the likelihood of future events, and there can be no assurance that any design will succeed in achieving its stated goals under all potential future conditions; over time, a control may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate. Because of inherent limitations in a cost-effective control system, misstatements due to error or fraud may occur and not be detected.

Section 404 Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002

The Securities and Exchange Commission, based on press release 2006-136 dated August 9, 2006, is proposing to grant relief to smaller public companies by extending the date of compliance with Section 404 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 (the "Act"). Under these proposals, the Company may be required to comply with the Act in two phases. The first phase would be effective for the Company's fiscal year ending October 31, 2008 and would require the Company to issue a management report on internal control over financial reporting. The second phase would require the Company to provide an auditor's attestation report on internal control over financial reporting beginning with the Company's fiscal year ending October 30, 2009. Under current requirements, the Company would be required to comply with the Act in fiscal year ending November 2, 2007.

In order to comply with the Act, the Company is in the process of centralizing most accounting and many administrative functions at its corporate headquarters in an effort to control the cost of maintaining its control systems. On July 11, 2006, The Committee of Sponsoring Organizations ("COSO") issued guidance on how small companies should implement an effective internal control framework over financial reporting and other risks. This guidance is considered a key tool to help smaller public companies to confront the challenges of Sarbanes-Oxley. When these requirements are implemented by management, the Company will likely incur substantial additional expenses and diversion of management's time. During the course of these activities, the Company may identify certain internal control issues which management believes should be improved. These improvements, if necessary, will likely include further formalization of policies and procedures, improved segregation of duties, additional information technology system controls and additional monitoring controls. Although management does not believe that any of these matters will result in material weaknesses being identified in the Company's internal controls as defined by the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board, no assurances can be given regarding the outcome of these efforts. Additionally, control weaknesses may not be identified in a timely enough manner to allow remediation prior to the issuance of the auditor's report on internal controls over financial reporting. Any failure to adequately comply could result in sanctions or investigations by regulatory authorities, which could harm the Company's business or investors' confidence in the Company.
